Kara M. Swasey is an associate at Bayard. Kara concentrates her practice in the areas of family law, including divorce, custody, child support, adoption, termination of parental rights, and protection from abuse. Kara also provides litigation support to the Firm’s bankruptcy, corporate, and commercial law practices.

Kara joined Bayard in 2007 after earning her J.D. and M.B.A. from Villanova University. She is admitted to practice law in Delaware and Pennsylvania. During law school, Kara was a Research Assistant to Professor Ann Carey Juliano. She also advanced to the “Elite 8” in the 2005-2006 Theodore L. Reimel Moot Court Competition at Villanova University.

Kara was recently elected Member at Large for the New Castle County of the Delaware State Bar Association, Family Law Section. She volunteers for Delaware Volunteer Legal Services and the Office of the Child Advocate. Kara also serves as an attorney coach for the St. Mark’s High School Mock Trial Team and participated as a judge in the National Mock Trial Championship held in Wilmington, Delaware, in May 2008.
