Stephen B. Brauerman (Steve) is an associate at Bayard. Steve concentrates his practice in the areas of corporate and intellectual property litigation in Delaware's state and federal courts, including the Delaware Court of Chancery. He has litigated a wide array of cases involving fiduciary duty claims, corporate and alternative entity control disputes, advancement/indemnification, breach of contract, antitrust, securities, patent infringement, copyright infringement, and trademark matters.

Steve joined Bayard in 2006 after graduating from American University's Washington College of Law and is admitted to practice in Delaware and New Jersey. While in law school, Steve spent a year working for the Honorable Gerald Bruce Lee of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. Additionally, Steve acquired litigation experience working in both the civil and the appellate divisions of the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia. Steve was Editor-in-Chief of the American University Law Review (Volume 55).

Steve is currently the Membership Chair of the Delaware Chapter of the Federal Bar Association and a member of the Richard S. Rodney American Inn of Court. Steve also serves as a director of the Reading Assist Institute (a non-profit organization that helps children overcome language-based learning disabilities), a member of the advisory board of the Young Impact Professional Society of the United Way of Delaware, and as a volunteer puppy raiser for Guiding Eyes for the Blind.

Steve recently completed the First Annual Federal Trial Practice Seminar sponsored by the United States District Court for the District of Delaware and the Federal Bar Association.
