

Race Judicata 2013

By Pat Quann, Executive Director
Delaware Law Related Education Center, Inc.

Everything went exceptionally well at the 8th Annual Delaware State Bar Association's Race Judicata 5K run/walk. The event was held on Saturday, April 6, 2013. Joe's Crab Shack served as the host site again and we are very grateful for their support. One hundred and thirty-nine participants ran or walked in the race and they ranged in age from under thirteen to over seventy. The Honorable M. Jane Brady, Judge of the Delaware Superior Court and President of the Board of Trustees for the Delaware Law Related Education Center, Inc. served as the starter for the race.

Race Judicata 2013 was organized by Charles B. Vincent, Esquire, of Labaton Sucharow LLP, with the support of Matthew R. Clark, Esquire, Chair of the Young Lawyer's Section of the Delaware State Bar Association. Mr. Clark is with the firm of Morris Nichols Arsht & Tunnell LLP. The Planning Committee also included John C. Cordrey, Esquire, of Reed Smith LLP and Michael J. Hoffman, Esquire, of Baird Mandalas, LLC. In addition, the following members of the Section assisted with the race: Andrew John Carmine, Esquire, of Elzufon Austin Tarlov & Mondell, P.A., Lindsay O. Clizbe, Esquire, of Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, Nicole M. Faries, Esquire, of Prickett Jones & Elliot, P.A., Emily Preslar Joseph, Esquire, of Anderson Elder Law, Evan T. Miller, Esquire, of Bayard, P.A. and Natasha M. Songonuga, Esquire, of Gibbons P.C.

Joe's Crab Shack provided an after-race buffet for all the participants. Everyone appreciated the wonderful food. We thank Caffè Gelato and Charles Vincent for their contribution of gift certificates and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP for water. We very much appreciate all the volunteers who helped with registration and other activities at the event, including members of the Delaware High School Mock Trial teams from the Charter School of Wilmington and Howard High School of Technology.
